Q1 Read the passage and answer the questions that follow:

(10)

The birds we see in the sky work hard and are punctual in their daily routine. Once there was a blue bird who used to wake up early in the morning to catch worms. Other birds would see her and laugh, seeing that "she was wasting her time." But the blue bird did not care and kept working hard every morning. She knew that, if she continues working hard, she would eventually be rewarded. Soon, the big day came and she caught the big worm. That big worm could barely fit in her mouth. The other birds were shocked and jealous, but the blue bird smiled and felt contented. She knew that her early mornings had paid off. So, hard work is a key to success.
